

SALEM NEWS

EDWARD JETER, REPORTER.

Phil. Burwell sold on Tuesday to H. H. Markley, of Roanoke, a magnificent steer weighing 1,905 pounds.

Miss Jennie Barnitz and little Margaret Self leave to day for Coaldale, W. Va., where Miss Barnitz goes to visit her married sister, Mrs. Self.

Edward Barnitz leaves to day for Lynchburg, where he goes on business.

Miss Bertha Martin, of Pulaski, is visiting her mother at the home of D. T. Martin across the river.

Prof. Alwood and Mr. Scott, of the V. P. L., who have been out on a still hunt after the pestiferous 'scale' insect, which has become so common on fruit trees in this section, passed through Salem yesterday on their wheels en route to Blacksburg.

M. Dobyns, of East Main street, has returned from a visit to his former home in Floyd county.

L. F. Dillard has completed and moved into his new stone house on Market street.

Professor Romer Stearnes has gone to Richmond as a delegate from the Fort Lewis Council to the grand council of the Roanoke Arcanum, which met yesterday in the above city. He will return to-day.

Irving Moon, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Koiner, at Crimora, Augusta county, returned home yesterday. He will leave Sunday to travel in the interest of a Richmond Drug Company.

Be sure to attend the graded school exhibition which takes place Friday night at the town hall. The admission fee is small and the programme is varied and extensive.

Some of the Roanoke county farmers seem to think that the cold weather of Tuesday night injured the wheat. It is to be hoped that they are in error, as examination discloses the fact that the fruit buds are not injured and the weather was hardly cold enough to hurt the hardy cereal.

Evangelist Clarence B. Strouse will preach at the holiness rooms in the Allen Block to night. Song service at 7:30 sharp. Preaching at 7:45 o'clock. This will be the last opportunity to hear Mr. Strouse for some time, as he leaves tomorrow to commence a meeting at Ashland, Ky.

Seventeen attended noon prayer meeting yesterday. Several new faces and some familiar ones that had been absent for some time were seen. Evangelist C. B. Strouse commenced to read the lesson of the day, Jno. 9th chapter, but was so carried away with the suggestions of the chapter that when he had concluded his reading and running comments the half hour was spent. Everybody ought to have heard him. To-day's lesson is the first half of the tenth chapter of John.

At the meeting held on Monday between representatives of Roanoke College and Washington and Lee University, Hampden-Sydney being represented by proxy, arrangements were perfected for an intercollegiate field meet, also a permanent organization. It will be impossible to have the first annual meet this year, as the V. P. L. and Hampden-Sydney both considered it too late to put a team in the field. The efforts put forth this year will probably bear fruit next year, when the intercollegiate Association will be formed. Roanoke College will hold their field day on Saturday, May 1. A large crowd is expected and an effort will be made to have the fare on the street railway reduced so as to accommodate those coming from Roanoke city. This event will be a success and some records will probably be lowered, as Roanoke College has excellent material in her track team. Besides the standard events there will be many others of an amusing character.

FAILURE IN BOOTS.

The Biedler Bros., of Baltimore, Forced to the Wall.

Baltimore, April 21.—Biedler Bros., wholesale boot and shoe dealers at 6 South Liberty street, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors yesterday for Frank R. Biedler, trustee. The bond was for $125,000, double the estimated value of the assets. The liabilities are approximately, $75,000.

Andrew J. Biedler, Charles E. Biedler and Thomas L. Bean are the members of the firm. They have been in business about seven years, and have an extensive Southern trade. Because of the depression in business and failure to make collections, it is said, they were unable to meet pressing obligations and were compelled to make the assignment.
